1 the stairwell. We met with the other units on the call as 2 well as the two persons reporting, who advised us that the 3 suspect had entered their -- their loft area swinging a 4 stick and instructed them, like, to get out. They 5 described him as being antsy, agitated. And they were 6 ultimately in fear, so they -- they fled their -- their 7 location to the lower level and contacted PD. We asked 8 them if he's still in there; is there anyone else in there.

9 While we were conducting our investigation, the 10 contact officer had his weapon and was posted up on 11 the -- the stairwell, which we thought was directly -- the 12 suspect would directly have access to if he went to flee.
13 Seeing that we didn't have a -- a less-lethal option there,
14 I repositioned myself behind him and had the bean bag slung
15 in a position where I could switch to my pistol to be a 16 designated cover officer shall the situation -- shall it 17 elevate to that sit -- that situation.

18 As we were doing our tactical plan, which involved
19 speaking with both PRs, our direct supervisor 20 was -- was -- we were discussing our roles where I was 21 gonna be less-lethal, the officer in front of me was gonna 22 be contact. As I said, I -- I also knew that my role could 23 switch the dynamic where I would be a designated cover
24 officer should something happen to the -- the point
25 officer. My -- my probationary officer, Officer Garcia,

1 suspect exited the location. He had his hands up.
2 He -- he -- he put his hands up. In his right hand, he was 3 clutching what I believed to be a screwdriver. It was an 4 object that was approximately -- protruding from the top 5 part of his -- his clenched fist, approximately 4 -- 3 to 6 4 inches. He was holding it. He put his hands up.

7 The cover officer began -- or the female officer
8 began to give commands to the suspect. One of the things 9 that we've had dozens upon dozens of encounters with in the 10 Skid Row area is individuals suffering mental illness or 11 drug-induced issues. So consequently, we'll have one 12 person giving commands; because if this person is having a 13 mental health episode, having multiple people yelling 14 different things can become confusing, contradictory, as 15 well as lead for one officer to perceive that the person is 16 not listening to commands versus the suspect trying to 17 follow all these different commands that are given.

18 So the -- the officer began to give commands. The 19 suspect began to comply at first. With his hands in the 20 air, he began walking backwards towards officers. He was 21 following the dictation of officers and where to move. At 22 which point I relayed to the arrest team behind me, "Hey, 23 arrest team up," which is telling them to be ready to begin 24 to move their way to the front that way they can 25 take -- that way they can take custody of the suspect and

1 injury -- serious bodily injury to my partner officer or to 2 other officers was imminent; therefore, I had to deviate 3 from policy by not giving the -- the bean bag warning. At 4 which point I -- I stepped slightly -- I stepped away from 5 my cover and concealment against the wall; I aligned 6 the -- the optic, which was turned on, with the center
7 mass -- the navel area of the -- the suspect, and I
8 deployed one round which struck him on his right 9 side -- his right stomach to lower rib area, I believe, is 10 where it's lined up. At this point, the officer to the 11 left of me deployed the -- the bean bag. I opened 12 the -- the action of the 40-millimeter, and I began to 13 redeploy while ex -- while attempting to extract the round 14 and insert another round.

15 At this point, it was clearly ineffective, which is 16 why my -- my partner officer with the bean bag fired. And 17 it seemed to agitate the individual more. At which point 18 we heard him yell loudly -- not words or anything, but just 19 out of anger -- and he charged the other officer that was 20 to my left who was holding the -- the bean bag. At which 21 point my supervisor grabbed the suspect in an attempt to 22 subdue him.

23 I observed that my partner had his -- his firearm 24 out. I then instructed, you know, to be mindful of -- of 25 potential crossfire because of the fact that we're all

1 immediately afterwards?

2 OFFICER CHOMUK: Not immediately afterwards, no. Or 3 I -- I did not hear a rack -- a re-racking of a slide, to 4 answer your question.

5 DETECTIVE VALDOVINOS: Okay. And you said you
6 redeployed --

7 OFFICER CHOMUK: Yes, ma'am.

8 DETECTIVE VALDOVINOS: -- in an attempt to reload your 9 40-millimeter --

10 OFFICER CHOMUK: Yes, ma'am.

11 DETECTIVE VALDOVINOS: -- once again. You'd mentioned 12 that you observed your partner --

13 OFFICER CHOMUK: Uh-huh.

14 DETECTIVE VALDOVINOS: -- with his handgun out --

15 OFFICER CHOMUK: Yes, ma'am.

16 DETECTIVE VALDOVINOS: -- at that time.

17 OFFICER CHOMUK: Yes, ma'am.

18 DETECTIVE VALDOVINOS: What was -- what was it that you 19 relayed to him at that moment?

20 OFFICER CHOMUK: To be mindful of -- of crossfire, due 21 to the situation, and just to be aware of either the 22 situation where we've now -- because of the suspect's
23 actions, we've been forced into a very close contact area 24 in a hallway, and there's many -- everybody's -- this 25 person -- this individual's belligerent. This is not

1 somebody that we're just trying to pin against a wall; this 2 is somebody who is thrashing, this is somebody who is 3 shoving officers to the point where my supervisor believed 4 that this individual could overpower us to the point where 5 my -- my supervisor got involved. So I wanted him to be 6 mindful just because as a -- a probationary officer and as 7 a -- a field training officer -- to be mindful of potential 8 crossfire with other officers.

9 Just officer safety is -- is the -- is at 10 the -- the head of it, and I just want -- I just wanted to 11 make that -- make that known to him or just -- just to call 12 it out that way it was addressed. You know, "Hey, 13 make" -- you know, like, if -- if -- based on the situation 14 where this individual is violently -- how we feel, 15 violently assaulting -- or on the verge of violently 16 assaulting officers, you know, with the screwdriver in his 17 hand, you know, to -- you know, I never told him to 18 reholster, because it's -- it -- if it's a -- a force where 19 he needs to be unholstered, you know, there's -- there's a 20 serious issue that -- to officer safety. So I just 21 called --

22 MR. WINSLOW: And --

23 OFFICER CHOMUK: I'm sorry.

24 MR. WINSLOW: Go ahead. Continue.

25 OFFICER CHOMUK: So that's why I -- I -- I called out

1 we were trying to do. Additionally, it -- it appeared that 2 the primary -- the first officer -- I made an indication to 3 go almost parallel to the door, which -- you know, which we 4 kinda called out. Just said, "Hey, let's reassess and 5 let's post up here." So in my opinion, there was no other 6 spot that had -- that -- that had good cover and that was 7 the best option.

8 DETECTIVE ILLIG: So the best you -- what you're 9 describing is basically just the -- the depth of a doorjamb 10 set in from the wall?

11 OFFICER CHOMUK: Yes, sir.

12 DETECTIVE ILLIG: Okay. Now, you mentioned that the 13 call out occurred and the suspect started walking toward 14 your position behind your cover and concealment; correct?
15 And the suspect is facing the officers and you with his 16 hands up, holding the -- what appeared to be the 17 screwdriver in his hand; is that correct?

18 OFFICER CHOMUK: Initially, he walked out, and he was 19 facing us. And he was directed to turn around and put his 20 hands up, which he did, initially.

21 DETECTIVE ILLIG: So he was directed to turn around.
22 So --

23 OFFICER CHOMUK: Yes, sir.

24 DETECTIVE ILLIG: So now -- did he comply with the 25 command to turn around?

1 OFFICER CHOMUK: Yes, sir.

2 DETECTIVE ILLIG: And when you say he turned, how did
3 he turn around? What direction did he turn?

4 OFFICER CHOMUK: From my recollection, he turned 5 clockwise 180 degrees. So he turned to the -- to his 6 right.

7 DETECTIVE ILLIG: Okay. So he turned to his right, 8 clockwise, 180 degrees. And where was his back pointed at 9 that point?

10 OFFICER CHOMUK: His back was pointed towards the 11 direct -- his back was pointed towards us. You do hear, at 12 one point, officer directing him to step to the left, which 13 was -- which would be done so that officers -- we can 14 direct him exactly where we need to be, straight 15 towards -- backing him straight towards us, or to be able 16 to put him against a wall that was there.

17 DETECTIVE ILLIG: Okay. So his back is facing towards 18 the officers.

19 OFFICER CHOMUK: Yes, sir.

20 DETECTIVE ILLIG: He's directed to step to the left.

21 OFFICER CHOMUK: Yes, sir.

22 DETECTIVE ILLIG: And you just motioned with your hand
23 on the table, stepping to the left --

24 OFFICER CHOMUK: Yes, sir.

25 DETECTIVE ILLIG: -- similar to the motion of moving

1 understand what we're asking them to do, they will turn to 2 be like, "Wait, what?" Or to clar -- to -- for them to 3 clarify that they're -- that they're being compliant.
4 However, he didn't just do this; he made the turn, and then 5 he took a fighting stance, clenched his fist, dropped his 6 weight, and then began to -- and then began to -- I'm 7 sorry -- advance on officers, towards us. Based on his 8 demeanor, as well as him holding what I believed to be a 9 screwdriver, I made the determination that the threat to 10 officer safety was imminent. I stepped away from my cover, 11 made sure that there was no crossfire, and I fired one 12 round, sir.

13 DETECTIVE ILLIG: Okay. Did you call out the fact to 14 the officers in the area that he was holding what you 15 believed was a screwdriver in -- in his hands?

16 OFFICER CHOMUK: No. No, sir, I did not.

17 DETECTIVE ILLIG: And why not?

18 OFFICER CHOMUK: I did not because dealing in this Skid 19 Row area, you're dealing with people with mental illness or 20 suffering a mental health episode. We've oftentimes 21 multiple people yelling things, can confuse the subject or 22 suspect. And it can also cause -- it -- it can 23 also -- it -- it can confuse the scene. We had our officer 24 that was giving commands to the suspect, who he was 25 complying with. She was being direct. Her voice was

1 clear. So I was -- I was allowing her to do that instead 2 of shouting things in this hallway that would echo and 3 then, like I said, if this person was having a mental 4 health crisis and six people are yelling six different 5 things, they become more confused which could lead 6 to -- which could lead to a worse outcome, sir.

7 DETECTIVE ILLIG: Okay. Was there any -- did you give 8 any consideration to redeploying backwards to create more 9 distance, as opposed to firing the 40-millimeter?

10 OFFICER CHOMUK: At this point, he was too close 11 to -- to the -- the contact officer, the officer that was 12 in front of me, after I fired the round. Because by -- by 13 him walking backwards to us and complying, initially, he 14 essentially took away from the cover that we had set up.
15 You know, we -- we set up that spot because we all believed 16 that it was the safest spot with our cover/concealment to 17 give us distance, to give us time and control of the scene.

18 But by him giving us -- by -- by -- by him 19 complying, initially, I believe he used that as a means to 20 get closer to officers in an effort to harm us. So I -- I
21 don't believe it -- it would have been effective. I 22 believe at that point he was too close where officers could 23 redeploy, which is why I stepped away and I fired. Once I 24 did fire, I did step away in an effort to assess the 25 situation while reloading, prior to firing a -- possibly

1 40-millimeter?

2 OFFICER CHOMUK: Approximately, I would say, 6 to 3 8 feet.

4 DETECTIVE VALDOVINOS: 6 to 8 feet. Okay. At any 5 point did you see if the suspect made any contact with any 6 of the officers there?

7 OFFICER CHOMUK: Yes, ma'am.

8 DETECTIVE VALDOVINOS: And what did you see?

9 OFFICER CHOMUK: He made contact with a -- a female 10 officer that was there. As I said, when I fired the -- the 11 40-millimeter round, it was ineffective and seemed to 12 agitate him. Almost immediately after I fired that, 13 the -- the bean bag was deployed. At which point he yelled 14 and made contact with the female officer. And at which 15 point he -- my -- my sergeant engaged him, and they began 16 having a physical altercation together where they were at 17 close contact. And at this point, I didn't see a 18 screwdriver (Inaudible) I didn't hear anything fall. So I 19 believed that he could possibly still be holding that 20 weapon.

21 DETECTIVE VALDOVINOS: Okay. And what -- or who is 22 that female officer that you're referring to?

23 OFFICER CHOMUK: Officer Rodriguez.

24 DETECTIVE VALDOVINOS: Okay. And can you describe, if 25 you can, in detail further --
